Blockchain Philanthropy

New Funding Pathways for NGOs

October 27th 2026

Why Should you Pay Attention?

Before we start...

The first rule of Blockchain is....

Definitions, terminology

- Web 3, Blockchain Technology
- Cryptocurrencies and Stablecoins
- NFTs and Governance tokens
- (Self Custody) Wallets

What is Blockchain Philanthropy

Blockchain Philanthropy is simply:
Using blockchain in a practical way for the benefit of people in need

We are leveraging blockchain technology and cryptocurrencies to make a bigger difference and support our work

Scope

FUNDRAISING:

- Revenue diversification while maintaining financial independence
- Donor diversification reaching out to younger generations
- Innovative fundraising opportunities in the Web3
- Blockchain and its components as an enabler.

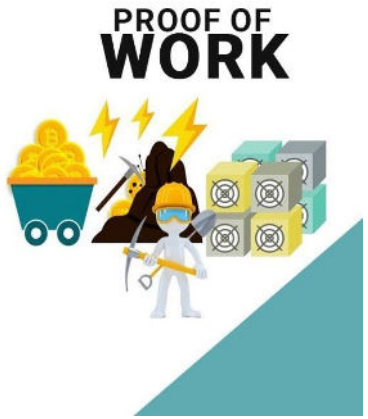

Blockchain philanthropy, an inherent part of our donor engagement.
Web3 generation = Our future partners and supporters

We want to incorporate this new segmentation into our fundraising

Risks & Challenges: Perception & reality

Risks

Dirty Money

Reputation

To Recap

Overall Objective: Diversify and increase the number of donors you have, beyond the existing markets/environments you evolve in.

New income channel in addition to established philanthropy income streams

Start with:

- Building in-house knowledge
- Securing key and sustainable partnerships
- Gaining visibility in the ecosystem
- Achieving a pull factor of the different stakeholders

Mid Term Objectives:

- Building a network of crypto donors and a new supporter base
- Understanding dynamics patterns and interest
- Communicating with and stewarding them appropriately
