ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Hotels in Geneva are highly occupied during annual events such as trade fairs and conferences listed above. For details on the exact dates, please contact the hotels directly.
- The rates are strictly preferential and they are not available to the public, therefore use of this benefit is limited to the UN System Organizations and UN Permanent Missions based in Geneva.
- Travellers are expected to make their own arrangements directly with the hotels.
- City/tourist tax is added by most hotels on top of the room price and it varies depending on the hotel class (per night per person: CHF 1.65-4.75 in Geneva, CHF 2.60-4.20 in Lausanne, EUR 0.20-4.00 in France). In exchange, guests may be offered a pass for public transport.

Please note that the prices in this database and other information are not subject to any binding offer between the UN and the accommodation providers. The accommodation providers reserve the right to change the rates without any prior notice.

By car: There are several highways leading to Geneva. If you are coming from Lausanne or France, you can take the A1 highway and exit at "Genève La Praille" or "Genève Acacias". From there, just follow the signs towards the city center. Note, however, that parking in downtown Geneva can be difficult and expensive. It is recommended to use public transportation. By Train: The main train station, Genève-Cornavin, is an important transportation hub and connects Geneva with numerous cities in Switzerland and abroad. From the station, you can take streetcar line 14 or 18 and get off at the Servette stop. Rue de la Servette is then just a few minutes walk away. By plane: From Geneva airport you can take the train and go directly to the main station Genève-Cornavin. The journey time is about 7 minutes. From there you can take streetcar line 14 or 18 and get off at the Servette stop. Rue de la Servette is then only a few minutes walk away.
